Procedural delays in execution of cases by CVC

1650. PROF. M. SANKARALINGAM: Will the Minister of PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there are procedural delays in the execution of cases by CVC; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI HARIN PATHAK): (a) and (b) The Central Vigilance Commission have intimated that the Commission endeavours to tender advice within four to six weeks from the date of receipt of the case.

At the end of November, 2003, 175 cases were pending before the CVC for less than one month, 52 cases were pending for more than one month but less than two months and one case was pending for more than two months.

Government employees in the Country

1651. MISS MABEL REBELLO: Will the Minister of PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS be pleased to state:

(a) the total strength of Government employees in the Country in Central and State Governments for the last five years;

(b) the total percentage of revenue spent on these employees during the last five years in Central and State Government including PSUs; and

(c) what percentage of staff strength has been brought down in Central as well as State Government after introduction of computers and implementation of Fifth Pay Commission recommendations during the last three years?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI HARIN PATHAK): (a) to (c) Position regarding Central Government employees is given in the Statement (See below). Employees of the State Government are not under the control of Central Government and data regarding State